THE VOTE UNDER STATE DEBATE.

Republican 36, Democratic 17, with the Same to Hear From.

The Democratic returns at this writing indicate that the net Democratic majority will be made up as follows:

	Dem.

STILL TRUE BLUE.

Harrison Will Get at Least 20,000 Majority in Illinois.

"Private Joe," Thrust Treated Daily in Cook, Will Beat Palmer 12,000 Votes.

Republicans Will Hold Their Own So Far as the Congressmen Are Concerned.

There Will Also Be a Republican Majority in the Next Legislature.

This, of Course, Will Insure the Re-election of a Republican United States Senator.

The Harrison tide carried the State of Illinois by at least 20,000 majority, and it may be even more than that. From the best known foundation for a majority are the Cook 12,000. In Cook County the vote for Governor is close, and it is probable that majority either way there cannot run into anything like the Harrison majority. The Cook County returns indicate will show a majority for him. Harrison's majority over Palmer will be the county, while Mr. Harrison's majority over Palmer will be 12,000. The latter will run behind many of the county ticket Republican votes, and this, of course, will tend to reduce the majority for the same reason in Cook County.

From the Congressional returns are conflicting reports. Here are to the effect that the Republicans have held their own. Gen. Fred A. Littlefield in the Fourth district, and Congressman Hopkins in the Sixth district, by a considerable majority over Roder and Mandell respectively in the Democratic, while Adams, in the Fourth district, is safely through the grace of the Democratic and Democratic votes. Adam Taylor's contest for a legal majority, Frank Lorimer seems through, and the Hon. W. E. Mason will go back to Washington to remain during the next two years.

The State General Assembly.

The returns from the Democratic districts show conclusively the fact that the Republicans will have a majority of not less than 6 in each house in the next General Assembly. The Senate will be made up of 31 Republicans, 21 Democrats, and 1 Union Labor. The House will consist of 74 Republicans, 74 Democrats, and 1 Union Labor. The Republicans elected to both branches of the Legislature will be members of the Senate, who will participate in the election of a United States Senator to succeed Senator Cullom. The selection of a Republican to the United States Senate is therefore assured. The election of a United States Senator by the next General Assembly will be greeted by the Republicans of the State with general satisfaction.

ELSEWHERE ELECTIONS.

The Majority in Iowa Will Be Between 40,000 and 50,000.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Kalamazoo Township gave Cleveland 181, Harrison, 551; Fox, 11; Bowers, 1. This is a Democratic loss of 9.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Returns promptly give Harrison 1,201, Cleveland 1,000, Fox 50.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Returns from 10 wards of Kalamazoo give Harrison 1,201, Cleveland 1,000, Fox 50. Kalamazoo's gain in the county is about 1,000.

Jackson, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—The vote from the townships in Jackson County will be about as follows: Harrison, 2,000; Cleveland, 1,000; Fox, 50. Harrison's majority in the county will be about 1,000.

Flint, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—The vote from all of Flint's 10 wards gives Harrison a majority of 401.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Returns from the Republican and Democratic wards of this city indicate that Saginaw will probably have a majority of 150 to 200 for the Republican ticket.

Bay City, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Bay City's vote for Governor is about as follows: Harrison, 1,200; Cleveland, 1,000; Fox, 50. Harrison's majority in the city will probably be about 200.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Ann Arbor gives Harrison 1,201, Cleveland 1,000, Fox 50. Harrison's majority in the county will be about 1,000.

Adrian, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—The vote from all of Adrian's 10 wards gives Harrison a majority of 401.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Returns from the townships in Kalamazoo County give Harrison 1,201, Cleveland 1,000, Fox 50. Harrison's majority in the county will be about 1,000.

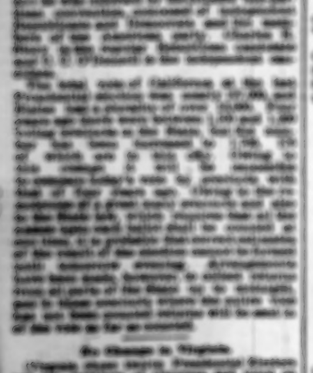
Jackson, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—The vote from all of Jackson's 10 wards gives Harrison a majority of 401.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 6.—[Special.]—Returns from the townships in Saginaw County give Harrison 1,201, Cleveland 1,000, Fox 50. Harrison's majority in the county will be about 1,000

NEVADA IS REPUBLICAN.

NEW YORK REPUBLICAN CLAIM IS BY A PLURALITY OF 180.

What Information We Can Put—Owing to Indefinite It Will Be Impossible to Compare the Election's Vote with That of 1896—Colorado Is Republican—South Dakota Votes Conference, but Is Probably Republican.



THE COUNTY REPUBLICAN.

RAMMING LARGER VOTE BY LOW PLURALITY.

Theobald and Foster Carry the City Wards by 2,000 and 1,000 Pending Returns with Sixty-nine Precincts in Cook County—Republican County Officers Elected, but the City Commissioners Are Democrats—Three Republican Congressmen Elected—The Legislature.

The indications at midnight, with forty-nine precincts missing, were that Theobald had carried Chicago by a majority of about 2,000 over Harrison. In the county outside the city Harrison's majority over Theobald is estimated at 1,000, which would make the Republican plurality in the whole county about 1,000. Seven-nine about 2,000 short of Theobald. His majority in Chicago will be between 2,000 and 3,000, and the Democrats claim to have carried the county by from 2,000 to 3,000. The Republican candidates for county offices are elected by small majorities, though later returns may show that they have been defeated.

The Republican candidates for County Commissioners in the city standing are probably defeated, and the Democrats are elected. The Democrats are sure of the County Board and every indication is that a Republican, Lorimer Dunham of the County Board. The Republicans elect Legislative candidates to at the top of the ticketing and the Cook County delegation to the next General Assembly will be largely Republican. Taylor, Mann, and Adams, Republicans, are elected to Congress by large majorities. Lorimer (Dem.) retains his seat in the Senate District by a small majority.

AS REGARDS SACKVILLE

Facts on the understanding of the case Made Public.

What Lord Salisbury Wrote to Lord Sackville and What the Latter Replied—Lord Salisbury's Correspondence with Minister Phelps—Sackville Said Signed Vote Was No Test Vote to Cleveland, but He Now Sees Was So Used.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The papers to-day publish what they claim is a letter from Lord Salisbury to Lord Sackville sent in March last, of which the following is a copy:

FOREIGN OFFICE, March 15, 1888.

SIR: Having regard to the friendly relations which have always existed between the United States and Great Britain, and to the cordial manner in which the government of the United States has invariably met any complaint addressed to it by her majesty's government, I have to express to you the surprise with which her majesty's government have learned that the government of the United States has taken exception to the publication of the letter addressed by you to a person who assumed to be a naturalized citizen of the United States, and has refused to receive any further communication from you on the subject.

Her majesty's government have not failed to observe that the publication of your letter has been followed by the resignation of the person to whom it was addressed of the office which he held under the government of the United States, and they have also noted the fact that the publication of your letter has been followed by the publication of a telegram addressed by you to the person who has resigned, in which you express your regret at the course which events have taken.

Her majesty's government have not failed to observe that you have not contested the accuracy of the publication, and that you have not given any explanation of the circumstances which led to the writing of your letter.

Under these circumstances her majesty's government have no alternative but to express to you the opinion that the publication of your letter was a breach of the courtesy which is due from one friendly government to another, and that the writing of the letter was inconsistent with the friendly relations which have always existed between the two countries.

I am, sir, your most obedient humble servant,

SALISBURY.

Lord Salisbury also sent the following instructions to Lord Sackville:

FOREIGN OFFICE, March 15, 1888.

SIR: I have to request Mr. Bayard's statement of the reasons why you declined to see him on the subject of his telegram.

Lord Salisbury also sent the following telegram:

FOREIGN OFFICE, March 15, 1888.

SIR: Lord Sackville reports that Mr. Bayard, in a communication to Mr. Phelps, objected to the publication of Lord Salisbury's letter to Lord Sackville, on the ground that it was a private letter, and because the publication of it was a breach of the courtesy which is due from one friendly government to another. Mr. Bayard also stated that Lord Sackville declined to see him. You will inform Mr. Bayard that Lord Salisbury is not aware that the publication of the letter was objected to by Lord Sackville, and that Lord Salisbury has not been informed that Lord Sackville declined to see Mr. Bayard.

Lord Salisbury also sent the following telegram:

FOREIGN OFFICE, March 15, 1888.

SIR: Lord Salisbury is a communication of Mr. Phelps, reported to have been made to Mr. Bayard, has stated that a copy of Mr. Phelps's letter to Lord Sackville was inclosed to Lord Salisbury in accordance with the request of Mr. Phelps that Lord Salisbury would read the letter before Lord Sackville received it. Lord Salisbury has not received from Mr. Phelps any request that Lord Sackville should read the letter before it was delivered to Lord Salisbury, and Lord Salisbury has not read the letter before Lord Sackville received it.

Lord Salisbury also sent the following telegram:

FOREIGN OFFICE, March 15, 1888.

SIR: Lord Salisbury has received your telegram of this date, and has noted the contents. Lord Salisbury is not aware that Mr. Bayard has invited Sackville to his house. Lord Salisbury has not received from Mr. Bayard any communication on the subject

OLD TIME CORN HUSKINGS.

AN INTERESTING REMINISCENCE OF THE GOOD OLDEN TIME.

The Corn-Huskings of the Olden Time Were Held in Which All the Young People of the Neighborhood Participated—The Night and the Pleasures Which Were Enjoyed Before Men Had Always Labor.

"Things" in the Atlanta Constitution: "The first ever had to do with a piece of corn?" asked Uncle Remus, as he let his pipe out from between his lips.

"I believe they did, sah, an' de wildest kind, too," answered the old man, as he settled back in his chair and got ready to keep his lips going with something, and for many years after with the fact that they had no such circumstance and pride. You know a shucking was the first time a young man and young lady, for many years in the history of the South, had a chance to be thrown together in the way that I have described, for I look at it as a means of bringing about congenial matches. You see, the old man's home wasn't open to just any and every one, and couldn't accept the invitation of the first comer. I was going out of the gate when I was just born.

"Corn-gathering times was a frisky, fun and excitement time. A good time was coming. The corn wasn't allowed to be cribbed in barns, but it lay just where it was ready to be cut and gathered, and there was no end to the fun and frolic that was had in the cornfield. Sometimes the corn was cut and gathered in the day-time, and sometimes at night, but I reckon the night-time was the favorite time for the young people. Then, too, the moon was always at the full, and that made it all the more romantic. Then, too, the corn was cut and gathered in shocks, and it was easier to get it in the night-time, when it was damp with dew, than it was in the day-time, when it was dry and brittle.

"Corn-gathering times was a frisky, fun and excitement time. A good time was coming. The corn wasn't allowed to be cribbed in barns, but it lay just where it was ready to be cut and gathered, and there was no end to the fun and frolic that was had in the cornfield. Sometimes the corn was cut and gathered in the day-time, and sometimes at night, but I reckon the night-time was the favorite time for the young people. Then, too, the corn was cut and gathered in shocks, and it was easier to get it in the night-time, when it was damp with dew, than it was in the day-time, when it was dry and brittle.

"Then when the corn was all in the shocks, and the corn-gathering season was over, then came the corn-huskings. The method of conducting such an affair according to the old-time style was something like this: Some one of the young men would go to the old man and ask him if he could have a husking. Of course he would say yes, and then the young man would go to the young lady and ask her if she would have a husking. If she said yes, then the young man would go to the old man and tell him that he had better have a husking, and then the old man would say, 'Well, you shall, I suppose.'

"Then, of course, word would be sent around to the neighbors that there was going to be a husking, and the neighbors would come in from all directions
